WELCOME HOME, GRADS

THE LAMRON OCE

VOLUME XXIV

OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1946

NUMBER 1

Faculty Members Added

This year we have the pleasure of presenting to you our new members of the Oregon College of Education faculty. They have come to aid us in our studies and to help us maintain a banner year in our social activities for the coming year. We must give them our whole hearted support.

The new members of our faculty are the following:

John A Barr, education and psychology, and director of training schools.

Robert D. Knox, coach and physical education instructor. Mr. Knox replaces Dick Gronquist, the coach here last year.

Matthew R. Thompson, science, mathematics, and 'veterans' adviser.

Miss Joan Seavey, dean of women, instructor in English, and director of the OCE news bureau.

Mrs. Dorothy Jones, director of dormitories. Miss Seavey and Mrs. Jones replace Miss Helen Mary Moore.

George J. Harding, instructor in English and director of dramatics.

Francis H. McKay, band and orchestra instructor.

Mrs. Marjorie Barrows, instructor in English.

Mrs. Doris Jones, student health nurse.

Miss Louise Woodruff, music department. Miss Woodruff replaces Mrs. Florence W. Hutchinson who is on leave of absence.

Supervisors in the Monmouth training school are: Miss Henrietta Wolfer, principal; Charles J. Noxon, eighth grade; Miss Minnie E. Dixon, sixth grade; Mrs. Vesta Roath, third grade.

Supervisors in the Independence training school are: Mrs. Kay Greane, eighth grade; Mrs. March Brown, fourth grade; Miss Alvertene Wadsworth, second grade; Miss Mildred Kane, first grade.

WELCOME, ALUMNI!

To those who have remained on the campus, it seems a long, long time since October 25, 1941, the date of the last Homecoming. Through all these years we have followed the sons and daughters of the Oregon College of Education as they have carried out the tasks that seemed most urgent, whether teaching the nation's children, maintaining a stable family and community life in a badly shaken world, or fighting the nation's battles in far-off lands. Always, the old college home has been kept in order and the welcome mat has been kept dusted and ready to lay out at the first intimation you were coming this way. It is with pride and satisfaction that we, who represent the college, greet you on this happy day. It is our hope that all the anticipated pleasures of this occasion may be yours.

Charles A. Howard,
President, OCE

Whiskerino Main Topic

The rapping of the gavel on September 30 in Campbell hall brought the first business meeting of the term to order. The officers presiding were: Ed Creecy, president; Ward Stanley, vice-president; and Bud Neal, secretary-treasurer.

The meeting got under way with a motion that all men participate in a "Whiskerino." A committee consisting of Ron Betterton, chairman, Harold Graven and Bob Abrahamson was appointed to take charge of arrangements.

The men voted to put on a half-time skit for the Homecoming football game and the following committee was appointed to make arrangements for it: Wayne Tate, chairman, Smith and Wheeler.

The remainder of the meeting was spent discussing ideas about decorating the various student houses on the campus for Homecoming. A committee was appointed to meet with house presidents to assist them in planning for decorations. Miller was appointed chairman of this committee. He will be assisted by Mallett, Winters and Crook.

HOMEcoming

Hurrah! for the day when the alumni may see

The halls of their college in bright jollity;

And think of their pleasure when hearing the songs

Of all the new freshmen who make up the throng.

Then welcome it is, as our group seems to grow,

And knowledge once gained here begins soon to show.

O, Homecoming means more than football and fun—

It means the renewal of friendships once won.

So here's to our college, and here's to the crowd

That yells for the team with all cheers clear and loud.

—Joyce Tverberg

Knox Coaches OCE Wolf Team

The new man on the campus who is slight, dark-complexioned, and partial to a range of garments from football togs to a gray, pin-stripe suit is our new coach, Robert D. Knox.

Mr. Knox comes to our institution from Franklin high school in Portland, where he has been

Associated Women Meet

The first meeting of the year for the associated women students was held October 1 with the president, Dona Canutt, presiding. Frances DeVos, vice-president, and Mildred Wilson, secretary, were introduced. It was decided to hold regular meetings on the first Monday of each month at 8 p.m. The constitution was read and two amendments were discussed. Committee chairmen for illness, refreshments, alumni, and social affairs were appointed. The dean of women, Miss Seavey, spoke encouraging student participation.

The group then divided into classes and class representatives were elected. Those elected were: Jeanne Mateson for the juniors, Wilda Robbins for the sophomores and Doris Anicker for the freshmen.

Editor Fails To Return

Bob Hansmann was chosen as Lamron editor for the present year. Bob has left school, however, so a new editor is to be chosen. In the meantime, Willie Knapp is acting editor. This is not an unfamiliar role for Willie, as she was Lamron editor last year.

GREETINGS FROM THE ASOCE

To you, alumni of OCE, who have passed this way before us, you who on your pathway of life have paused on this campus so that you could become better parents, neighbors and citizens, we extend our warmest welcome. In your quest for knowledge you have taken much with you, but you have also left a part of that which was your life while on this campus and for which we are all thankful. The traditions, spirit and atmosphere you helped create are helping us to reach the goal that you attained. In this first Homecoming since 1941 we have made every effort to keep those traditions which you so long cherished. We welcome you back to renew your friendships and to refresh those memories of fun, frolic and friends that have added to your happiness.

AL THIESSEN, ASOCE President

Bud Neal Manages Week end

Preparations are ready for the biggest program ever to be presented to the returning alumni who will be our guests at Homecoming. This is the first Homecoming for the school since the war began in 1941. Let's all turn out to make it the biggest and best in the history of the college.

Here is an idea of the way things are lined up for the week-end:

Friday, at 1:30 p.m., a serpentine will be formed at the college to parade through Monmouth and, if enough transportation is present, it will be carried to Independence. Then at 7:30 p.m. the officers of the freshman class will light the fire that the freshman have prepared on the football field. At the fire the rally squad will form another serpentine which will wind through the town and end at the auditorium in Campbell hall where a program which has been prepared by Al Neet will be given. Prizes will be awarded for the best decorated campus living organizations and then, the grand event of all—the choosing and awarding of prizes for the heaviest, the best trimmed and the reddest — yes, the best beards grown during the "Whiskerino." After this program there will be a "juke dance" in recreation hall.

Saturday, at 2 p.m. at the stadium field west of the OCE campus will be the Homecoming football game, the biggest game of the season with the OCE Wolves playing the Lewis and Clark pioneers from Portland. There is to be halftime amusements and immediately after the game free coffee and doughnuts will be served in the recreation hall. From 9:00 to 12:00 the annual Homecoming dance will be held in the physical education building with Wes Lang and his orchestra providing the music.

General chairman of Homecoming is Bud Neal who has been

MEN PREDOMINATE

Differing radically from what has been the case in the immediate past, men students now predominate on the Oregon College of Education campus. Some are commenting that such a condition at OCE is without precedent. Let it be recalled, however, that our college has a 90-year history. While our institution has always been co-educational, in its earlier years as Monmouth University and as Christian College, men were very much in evidence. On the east side of Campbell hall is a memorial plaque with the names of the graduating class of 1873 inscribed thereon. Not a woman's name appears on it.

Lamron Editor Named Welcome, Freshmen

Jeanne Stanton Erickson is the new editor of the Lamron. Perhaps we should say that a former editor has returned. Three years ago, before her service in the Waves, Mrs. Erickson held the Lamron editorship. She was Miss Stanton then, however. Thanks are due to Willie Knapp, who acted in the editorial capacity last year, for assisting in getting the Lamron under way for 1946-47.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship is one of the oldest evangelical Christian student organizations, beginning at Cambridge university in England in 1877. Since then it has spread to universities in many countries, and over 100 chapters are located in the United States alone.

The two-fold purpose of Inter-Varsity is to present Christ on college campuses: first, by providing fellowship for Christian students through daily prayer meetings, Bible studies, conferences, and socials; second, by stimulating Christian students in an effective witness to the saving power of Jesus Christ before fellow students.

The OCE chapter of I.V.C.F. was organized in 1939 and has been active since that time. Daily prayer meetings are held at a convenient hour and on Monday evenings the group meets for a lively song service followed by Bible study or an inspirational message by a speaker.

State conferences are planned each year. The fall conference is usually held on one of the college campuses while the spring conference is planned for some retreat such as Silver Creek falls.

Inter-Varsity members cordially welcome all students on the campus to their meetings. Officers are: Dona Moomaw, president; Arline Shearer, vice-president; Darlene Jones, treasurer; Eldora Whitaker, reporter. Miss Ruth Denney is faculty adviser.

Welcome to OCE, you freshmen. You've come here from all parts of Oregon, and even from other states. We just want to take a little space here to try to make you feel more at home.

The minute you enrolled at OCE you became a part of one of the largest organizations of the college—the freshman class. Use your power to your own advantage, and also to build up the school.

Welcome to OCE, you freshmen. Welcome from the staff, the faculty, and the student body. We hope you will like our school.

U.N. Play Presented

A play, "The United Nations," was given by the seventh and eighth grade classes of the Monmouth training school on Thursday, October 4. All those who witnessed this play were very much pleased with the performance.

New OCE Coach

(Continued from Page One) coach for the last two years. During his summer vacations there he worked as athletic director for the city playgrounds, and one summer held the same position at Reed college.

Before taking the position with Franklin high, Mr. Knox was director of physical training at the University of Idaho. Along with these duties he took charge as a boxing coach to help the army specialized training program then in operation at that institution.

A University of Oregon graduate in 1931, Mr. Knox continued his education with graduate work at New York and Stanford universities. He did, however, return to the U. of O. for his master's degree in 1936. And, to fill in his spare time from 1931 to 1936 while doing graduate work for his M.S., Mr. Knox worked as director of athletics at Wilson junior high school in Eugene.

To take up the idle moments of his day, Mr. Knox picked up the hobby of photography. He did not say whether this was before or after he robbed the U. of O. of a good dancing teacher by getting married to that member of the faculty. They now have two children; a girl, Barbara, and a boy, Larry.

Construction On Ad Building

By this time everyone has heard sounds of hammering and sawing in the administration building. This work began last summer when the state board of higher education O.K.'d the completion of the third floor. When this work is finished, the college will have a very fine addition. There is to be a chemistry room and a physics room, with laboratories. These were to have been completed by the beginning of this term, however, there have been complications.

Now all you would-be chemistry students, just be patient and you will be able to take a chemistry course at OCE yet.

William Genne CCYM Speaker

Our student branch of Y.M. and Y.W.C.A. is C.C.Y.M. Meetings are held Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. in the music hall and are open to all students.

The first fall meeting of the group was featured by a talk on the place of "Y" work on the campus given by Bill Genne of the regional office.

Officers for the year are: Wilma Stout, president; Lily Young, vice-president; Avis Hudson, treasurer. Ellis A. Stebbins and Miss Mary Donaldson are faculty advisers.

A program for the year includes talks on marriage, religion, and faiths. The World Student Service fund program is sponsored on the campus by C.C.Y.M. An assembly speaker for this will be announced later.

Dr. Howard Is Assembly Feature

The topic of Dr. C. A. Howard's talk at the assembly program on October 8 was "What Do Students Want out of College?"

According to Dr. Howard, the college students' desires may be divided into three groups.

First, either to participate, or to enjoy through observation, the various physical activities such as football, basketball and the other forms of athletics.

Next, a student may desire experience in human relationships. This may be acquired through membership in various campus clubs, through holding office, or through taking part in the music or dramatics program.

It is Dr. Howard's belief that the third and most important of the college students' wants is an opportunity for intellectual experience and growth, which may be acquired readily at a small college because of the close student-faculty relationship.

Dr. Howard feels that utilization of all college resources will enable the student to lead a more valuable and satisfying life.

WELCOME, NEW STUDENTS

We wish to welcome all returning students and those students who are new to this campus. We hope that by your active participation in campus events you will add to your social and intellectual stature. Your rooting at athletic events, attendance at social functions, your adherence and cooperation in keeping our traditions will help to make your college life worthwhile. You, as members of the student body, can determine your enjoyment of life on this campus by your attitude. Let's go! Be a booster!!

Official WHISKERINO Proclamation

Hear ye! Hear ye! Hear ye! By order of ye Royalle Councille of ye Associated Men, ye annual Whiskerino is hereby ordered effective this first day of October, in ye year of our Lord, Nieten Hundred Forty Six.

Furthermore, may it be known that no male person may look at, handle or attempt to use any form of apparatus associated with the removing of his beard, under fear of penalty from ye honorable committee thusly appointed: Harold Graven, Ron Betterton, Bob Abrahamson. Tortures shall be inflicted for any violations, and these horrors bared to ye public.

Notice of ye termination is hereby given:

Whereas this proclamation shall be declared void ye evening of ye eleventh day of October, with a final judging by ye fair sex, in ye olde school auditorium, and with a public shaving of ye champion.

Royale seal affixed by his magistrate, Ed Creecy, chancellor of ye associated men.

Our associated student body officers this year are: Alfred Thiessen, president; Betsey Dreier, vice-president; Lidy Lu Swofford, secretary.

The "Horizon" club of Campfire held its first meeting of the term on Monday, September 30, at 8 p.m. The year's program was presented and discussed and plans were made for the "come as you are" party that was held October 2 in Jessica Todd hall.

Any woman students who is interested in a democratic organization, in counseling in summer camps, in group leadership, and in campus activities is invited to join.

The regular meetings are held on the second and fourth Mondays of every month at 8 p.m. in the Campbell hall basement.

HOWELL HALL

At their first meeting of the year the girls at Howell house elected officers. Jeanne Matteson is our new president. Arline Shearer was elected secretary-treasurer and Caralee Nelson; with the help of the other house members, is to be reporter.

Mrs. Hazel Lehman, Elaine Townsend, Arline Shearer, Donna Miller, Jeanne Matteson, and Caralee Nelson are living in the hall at present. Mrs. Stanton is our house mother. Howell house is the big white house just two blocks east of the music hall.

Analysis Shows Some Changes

For the first time in many, many years men outnumber women enrolled at the Oregon College of Education. This fact was revealed by Ellis A. Stebbins, OCE registrar on September 30 when the total enrollment of 332 students was broken down for analysis. At that time there were 192 men and 139 women enrolled.

The break-down shows, also, that teacher training is still predominant at the college, with 174 students enrolled in that division as compared to the 153 students taking lower division work. On the basis of past performance it is anticipated that a large percentage of the lower division students will take teacher training later.

Further analysis shows that veterans are a majority on the OCE campus by a margin of three students. Thirteen of the 169 campus veterans are women.

J.T. Girls Meet Dorm Leaders

The first meeting of Jessica Todd hall was held September 26 at 10:30 p.m. in the living room. The combination party and business meeting was held for the purpose of welcoming the new girls and acquainting them with the Dorm's activities.

Our capable new house president, June Felder, introduced Miss Seavey, new dean of women, and Mrs. Jones, director of dormitories. Following these introductions, the other members of the Dorm executive council were introduced. They are as follows: Mina Zebley, vice-president; Mildred Wilson, secretary; Eldora Whitaker, treasurer. Floor representatives are: Margaret Bramlet, second floor; Viola Robbins, third floor; Marjorie Rieck, mezzanine and painted alley.

Margaret Bramlet is chief fire warden for the dorm. She will be assisted by Peggy Geertz, Avis Hudson and Willie Knapp. Wilma Stout is chairman of the hospitality committee. Other members are Dona Moomaw, Lillie Young and Dona Canutt. Ethel Pamperin, chairman of the entertainment committee, will be assisted by Lidy Lu Swofford, Mina Zebley, Marge Campbell and Willie Knapp. House reporter this year is Joanne Sloan and Wilma Stout is song leader. Joan Bolsinger is floral arrangement chairman. Betty Seidel is chairman of the sick committee. Her assistants are Mina Zebley, Margaret Bramlet, Eileen Smith and Anneta Grove.

The Dorm's term book, containing social plans, programs and committees, was read and explained by June Felder, president. At the close of the business meeting everyone enjoyed orangeade and cookies in the dining room.

The "old timers" at the Dorm wish to welcome all the new girls. We are very happy you are here with us and hope you will enjoy your stay at Jessica Todd hall.

Soft Creeps the Ivy

Soft creeps the ivy

Still Alma Mater calls.

First Meeting ASOCE Held

Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors met together on Tuesday, October 1, for the first general assembly of the year. President Charles A. Howard extended a welcome to all students and expressed gratification over the increased enrollment.

Miss Louise Woodruff of the music department was presented to the student body and directed the singing of a number of college songs.

The program was then turned over to Al Thiessen, student body president, who discussed Homecoming highlights. The yell leaders were introduced and—if the calibre of the yell leaders is indicative of anything—OCE should have a mighty peppy rooting section this year.

On the OCE campus the scholarship fraternity for women is called Sigma Epsilon Pi. The fundamental purpose of this organization is the cultivation and promotion of scholarship and leadership which include the fidelity and honor that should go with high scholastic standing.

The Lamron of December 14, 1932, reveals that during the fall term of that year, the Beta chapter of Sigma Epsilon Pi was established at Oregon Normal school now the Oregon College of Education. The fraternity was founded in 1927 at what was then the Southern Oregon Normal school in Ashland.

Any woman who after one term of residence work has earned a grade point of 3.25 while carrying a credit load of at least 15 term hours, is eligible for membership in the fraternity. In order to retain active membership, a student must maintain a 3.0 or higher grade point average while carrying a credit load of 12 or more term hours. Students who fail to maintain the required grade point average remain members but lose voting privileges and the right to hold office until the 3.0 grade point is again achieved.

Donna Miller is president of the group for this year. Mina Zebley is vice-president and Mildred Wilson is warden. The offices of secretary-treasurer and reporter are yet to be filled.

Many a girl has made herself a spectacle with two glasses.

Campfire Girls Party at Dorm

The living room of the Dorm has been the scene of some gala affairs these days. The "Come As You Are" party Wednesday evening for all women students sponsored by the Campfire club seems to lead the list of pleasant evenings so far.

At 10:30 the biggest fashion show of the year was held with everything from hair curlers to blankets, modeled by some of our own models. That knock at the door and "come as you are" caught some of the girls quite unaware. Congratulations, Barbara Kirsch on winning the prize for being the most honest.

Mary Ann Hardin wants everyone to know that her dream man will be living on "easy street" if he'll just accept her proposal of marriage. Proof of this statement can be secured from Al Neet. By the way, just what privileges do some men have, being offered such bribes, and being at the Dorm at 10:45? Other girls participating in the "proposal" contest were Marjorie Rieck, Connie Eykelbosch, Norlene Mink and Wilda Robbins.

Marge Campbell was really teaching Lillie Young to drink water when they won over the other contestants in the water-drinking contests. By the way, drinking by the teaspoonful from a cup is not as easy as it sounds. We have reason to believe that Betsey Dreier is not living up to her last name. We came to this conclusion after witnessing her attempts to down her cup of water. That was some good drinking, though, girls!

Willie Knapp, Ethel Pamperin, and Jeanne Matteson weren't well enough acquainted with Monmouth's garbage pails, tacks in rugs, and window to escape singing a trio for an appreciative audience.

To end a very gay evening, steaming hot chocolate and cookies were served by members of the Campfire club. This was one party that won't easily be forgotten. Let's do it more often.

Guests of the evening were Miss Jane Dale, former faculty member; Miss Ruth Lautenbach, adviser of Campfire; and Miss Seavey, dean of women.

Small—but full of lots of ideas for fun in the coming year—Collecto Coeds met for the first time this year on Tuesday, October 1. Plans for selling tickets and for acting as ushers at the Homecoming football game were made. Also on the agenda were plans for an informal tea in the near future and for the annual Sweetheart Ball to be held in February.

Collecto Coeds is one of two women's service honoraries on the Oregon College of Education campus. Membership is limited to 15 girls. Eligibility for membership is based on scholarship average, character, cooperation, loyalty, and service. The purpose of the organization is the promotion of athletics and other student activities.

Members are: June Pangborn, president; Ethel Pamperin, vice-president; Carolyn Going, secretary-treasurer; Ethel Lawless Elwood, Edna Pike. Former members who have returned to the campus this term are Marion Wiest, Lillian Dahl Strandberg, and Connie Eykelbosch. Mrs. D. R. Dewey is the club adviser.

Crimson "O" is the campus organization which fills the need of development of dramatic culture. Mr. Harding who conducted Pacific university players last summer and who is now on the OCE faculty, is the new club adviser.

At the first meeting for this term Ann Akerson was elected president; Willie Knapp, vice-president; Winnifred Davidson, secretary and Dona Cannut, treasurer.

The club usually presents at least one play a term and the selection of one for this term is already under way. Announcement concerning it will be made later.

Vet Village Completed

One of the latest additions to our ever expanding Oregon College of Education is the Veterans' Village or housing project. This project was brought here to alleviate the housing situation for veterans enrolled at the college.

The site for the project was furnished by the college and a total of 44 units have been installed, of which four are combined kitchen-living room apartments, two are single-bedroom apartments, 26 are two-bedroom apartments and 12 are three-bedroom apartments. Not all of the apartments are full as yet.

According to government regulations these houses are to be torn down after a five year period, if the housing situation is improved, but the writer is of the opinion that these houses could be used in future years as the completed project will make this project a worthwhile campus asset.

Much credit is due President C. A. Howard and Ellis A. Stebbins, registrar, in acquiring this needed housing and many veterans are very thankful to have living accommodations of this type in which to live at the present time.

Mrs. Helen Thompson, manager, is doing everything possible to assist those in residence in this housing project.

Lewis & Clark Homecoming Foe

Lewis and Clark college will tangle with OCE in the Homecoming football battle tomorrow afternoon on the local field, with a large crowd expected to show up for the contest.

Five lettermen are back for more football at OCE. They are: Harold Graven, guard on the 1940 squad; Ward Stanley, left end in 1941; George Winegar, center and guard in 1941 and 1942; Don Gregg, fullback and tackle in 1941 and 1942; and Rob Crook, halfback in 1942.

Ward Stanley was elected captain for the 1946 season, and Rob Crook, assistant captain.

The Portland team with canny Matty Matthews as head coach, will bring out a razzle-dazzle, wide open offensive style of football that the Wolves must stop if they are to come out on the winning column. OCE will undoubtedly be tagged as the under-dog, but Coach Robert Knox thinks his boys will give the Pioneers a few surprises.

If the Pioneer line is too tough to run through, Tommy Jones, left half, will begin to toss passes.

Educators Down Quakers 18-0

Scoring one touchdown in the second period and two in the third, OCE's 1946 football team ran over Pacific college 18-0 here last Friday in the first fracas of the season.

Tommy Jones former Cottage Grove ace, tossed a 10-yard pass to Rob Crook, quarterback, for the first score of the contest. Early in the third period, after Hamilton and Gregg had carried the ball to the Pacific 20, Jones unfurled a perfect toss to Allunbaugh, right end, for another six points.

Highlight of the game was a 45-yard dash by Gail Davis who intercepted a pass on the Pacific 45 and dashed down the west sidelines, aided by some fancy blocking, to hit pay-dirt.

The blocking by Crook, swivel-hipped running by Jones, Gregg's end sweeps and Hamilton's line-plunging, featured the battle.

On the defensive side, Miller, right tackle, was the standout. He made tackles all over the field, especially on the kick-offs. Davis, Mattison, Hiebert and Houk of the second backfield combination, showed plenty of speed and deception. —W.S.

History repeats itself. We've got to break it of the habit.

Jones threw beautiful aerals in the Pacific college game last Friday for two of the three touchdowns registered in the 18-0 win.

On several occasions the Wolves showed outstanding blocking. It was especially noticeable when Davis intercepted a pass on the Quaker 45. His teammates cleared the way down the sidelines and he went over the goal standing up.

Coach Knox will probably stick with the same lineup that started the Pacific tussle: Allunbaugh and Stanley at ends; Miller and Padberg, tackles; Moffit and Harmon, guards; Winegar at center; Crook, quarter; T. Jones, left half; Gregg, right half and Hamilton, fullback.

However, this lineup is subject to change. There is little difference between the first and second teams, especially in the backfield since Mattison, Hiebert, Houk, and Davis don't have to take a back seat to anyone. —W.S.

Joanne Sloan has assisted by mailing invitations to students of the past five years, approximately 500 persons. Miss Ruth Lautenbach, physical education instructor, also deserves a lot of credit for her part in the event.

WAA Plans Many Activities

The members of W.A.A., Women's Athletic Association, are expecting a large turn-out of new members this year from the freshmen girls who would like to earn points for letters and sweaters. These points may be earned by attending two-thirds of the sport practices, and by playing on house and class teams. Volleyball practices will start Wednesday night. Eight of the 12 practices must be attended in order to receive credit.

The aim of W.A.A. is to further sportsmanship, leadership and skill, as well as to provide relaxation and play. During the next three terms, W.A.A. will undoubtedly sponsor play nights, folk dances and Thursday night teas.

The club officers are: Eldora Whitaker, president; Jeanne Mateson, vice-president; Peggy Bramlet, secretary; Willie Knapp, treasurer; Joyce Tverberg, reporter; Miss Ruth Lautenbach, adviser.

The sports managers are: Fran-
